

READING in SYNC

commit to a chapter a day with your family

This Week's Theme: "WHEN I SURVEY THE WONDROUS CROSS"

26
Oct

ISAIAH 53

This prophetic chapter about Christ's crucifixion, very interestingly is written in past tense. While though Christ had yet to be crucified, the certainty of His sacrifice was so reliable that the prophet could speak of it as though it already happened.

27
Oct

MATTHEW 27

This chapter includes the suicide of Judas, Jesus facing Pilate, the exchange of Jesus for Barabbas, the soldiers mocking Jesus, the sign placed above Jesus' head, Jesus' death, His burial in the tomb, and the setting of a guard at the tomb of Jesus.

28
Oct

MARK 15

This chapter includes Jesus facing Pilate, the exchange of Jesus for Barabbas, the sign placed above Jesus' head, the mocking of Jesus by the crowd, Jesus' last words, His burial in the tomb of Joseph of Arimathea.

29
Oct

LUKE 23

This chapter includes Jesus facing Herod, as well as Pilate; Jesus' exchange for Barabbas; Simon carrying the cross of Christ; the darkness over all the earth; the tearing of the temple veil; Jesus' last words, and more.

30
Oct

JOHN 19

John's Gospel includes account of some of the women at Jesus' cross (His mother, His aunt Mary, and Mary Magdalene), as well as the only record of Jesus' words to His mother while on the cross: "woman, behold your son!"

Join us on November 1st for worship. The sermon will sync with our readings!

visit katychurchofchrist.com for more information